EXPLANATORY NOTES

Volume 78 of American Book Prices Current has been prepared by a team of editors highly experienced in the field of rare books and manuscripts. As its users know, ABPC is not just a transcribed record of titles and prices, copied unquestioningly from the season's auction catalogues. It is, on the contrary, the only work in English in which every listing of printed material has been checked as to title, format, date of publication, edition, and limitations. Bindings are described, with condition where relevant, and wherever possible maps and plates in books are verified. Moreover, sales of autographs and manuscripts are reported. Because of this, ABPC is an essential tool for buying, selling, and evaluating books, serials, autographs, manuscripts, broadsides, and maps, based on actual figures realized at auction. In the words of a reviewer in The Times Literary Supplement, it is "an accurate, indispensable tool for the antiquarian bookseller and collector." And, in addition to meeting the need for a dependable guide in determining the value of old and out-of-print books, ABPC serves as a reference work and as an aid to scholars in locating printed works and manuscripts of all centuries, from the earliest years to the present.

Because of the tremendously increased activity in recent years in the book and auction market and the resulting growth in the size of ABPC, we have been forced to choose between expanding to two volumes with a corresponding increase in cost to the user and reduced convenience in handling, or placing limits on certain categories not of prime interest to most users of ABPC. In brief, listings of books in non-Western languages realizing less than $100 or its equivalent have been judiciously reduced, and such peripheral works as printings of musical scores, collections of plates, panoramas, etc., have been excluded. In keeping with previous editorial policy, auction lots consisting of groupings of miscellaneous volumes are not listed, for the prices realized by such lots can give no accurate indication of the value of individual items. Similarly, listings of badly broken runs of periodicals or seriously incomplete sets of printed books do not appear. A feature is the presentation of autograph and manuscript listings in a single section, it being our belief that the convenience of the user is better served with but a single alphabet to work through than with an arbitrary division by chronological order. The economies in space realized by the foregoing have enabled us, on the other hand, to expand considerably the number of cross-references given, with a resultant increase in the convenience and usability of the book as a work of reference and guide to current prices.

American Book Prices Current is composed of two parts. Part I, Books, includes Broadsides, single-sheet printings, Maps & Charts, and uncorrected proof copy. Part II, Autographs & Manuscripts, includes original illustrations for printed books, documents, letters, typescripts, corrected proofs, signed photographs, and signatures, as well as manuscripts.

Entries are listed alphabetically by author whenever possible, by title when the author's name is not readily available, or by Private Press and Club, printer, or pub- lisher headings if such are the associations which attract the collector. In general, illustrated books are listed under the author of the text. Subject headings such as England, Maps & Charts, Hebrew Books, Collections of Voyages, and Fore-Edge Paintings, or those for individual U.S. states or cities have also been used. Individual works are in turn listed alphabetically under each heading and include: title; place & date of publication; edition designation; number of volumes, when more than one; size, binding, and condition of binding; descriptive material, limitation notes, and the sale record — auction house (in code), date or number of sale, lot number, price, and purchaser (when such information has been provided).

EXPLANATORY NOTES

There are cross-references to Club or Press books, to books bound together, and to books by more than one author.

Listings of 20th-century books frequently lack format and binding. In such instances it may be assumed that these books are octavo or duodecimo and bound in cloth. It has been the practice not to include such information for books published after 1900.

Volume 78 lists only those books and manuscripts which sold for $20 or £10 or more. American and Canadian sales are recorded in dollars and cents, English sales in pounds and shillings. Prices reported by Swann Galleries drop the odd half-dollar, in accordance with the price lists provided by that house.

Our most particular thanks are due Ellen Hochberg, Jane Cherry, Barbara Robey, Doris Safie, Gerard Mayers, Edward & Ramona Lazare, and John Carter.

THE AUCTION SEASON

Volume 78 of American Book Prices Current reports the auction season from September 1971 to August 1972. Included are sales at the leading houses of London, Paris, New York, Montreal, Philadelphia, and San Francisco. This volume contains over 29,000 entries from more than 170 sales.

A new and exciting addition to ABPC is the Paris firm of Ader Picard Tajan. Their many brilliant sales included one this year that demanded to be recorded in these pages: Part I of the Library of Raphael Esmerian (see below for details). In future years, ABPC hopes to cover selected sales by this firm (and by other European firms) in addition to the other parts of Mr. Esmerian's library.

With this volume ABPC welcomes back to the auction scene and to its pages California Book Auction Co. in San Francisco. The range of books covered by ABPC has been extended by the return of California Book Auction to full activity, as a glance at such entries as Grabhorn Printing will show. One of the most interesting items sold by this house was William Tecumseh Sherman's copy of Gardner's Photographic Sketchbook of the War, which brought $4,250.

The 1971-72 season, though not remarkable in the sense of being dominated by a great many "name" sales or collections of such exotic fare as Persian or Hebrew manuscripts, was rich and varied. It was a fine "bread and butter" year, with a large helping of dessert. Such literary figures as Dickens, Shaw, and—for the second season running—Trollope were very well represented indeed. The A. G. B. Randle collection of all books issued under the Dun Emer and Cuala imprints, with the exception of the bound second and third series of broadsides and some of the privately printed volumes, sold at Sotheby on May 1. Prominent subject areas included Australiana, Canadiana (led by but not exclusive to Montreal Book Auctions), calligraphy, children's books, voyages and travels, private presses (particularly Derrydale), and modern illustrated books. Medical and cookery books were less well represented than in some previous seasons.

The wealthy buyer could have his choice among no fewer than three copies of Colonna's Hypnerotomachia Polifili in the 1499 Aldine Edition: for $1,500 in the October 8 Parke-Bernet sale; for £3,000 in the Penrose sale; and, in a "powdered binding," for F580,000 in the Esmerian sale. Or he could purchase "Mary's Lamb" in the hand of Sarah Josepha Hale for $5,000, or settle for the first stanza only for $375 in the hand of George Bernard Shaw, both from Parke-Bernet. Manuscript items of interest to Americanists included the co-pilot's log of the mission of the Enola Gay to drop the atomic bomb on Hiroshima ($37,000) and the "Voyage fait du Canada par dedans les terres allans vers le sud dans l'annee 1682," the engineer Minet's account of La Salle's expedition from Canada to the mouth of the Mississippi ($10,000).

Fine bird books were plentiful, the height of the season being reached in Sotheby's sale of June 26-27 with the Chetham's Library set of the double elephant folio edition of Audubon, with the Lizars imprint on Plates 1-10, which went to J. N. Bartfield for £62,000. On April 12 Christie offered a remarkable collection of the works of John Gould. Thirteen of the works offered brought a total of £54,900, an average of £4,223 per lot. The highest price paid was £8,500, for a set of the Monograph of the Trochilidae or Family of Humming-Birds, followed closely by the £8,400 paid for the Birds of New Guinea. The Birds of Australia brought £7,500, while £7,200 was paid for the Birds of Asia. Other interesting items included the 2d Folio Edition of Audubon's Birds of America, £6,000, while the 1st 8vo Edition of the same work brought £2,100.

THE AUCTION SEASON

Botanists and others congregated at Swann on October 28, when the library of Ashton Allis was sold. Among the featured items were Cornut's Canadensium Plantarum ($1,400), Dillenius's Hortus Elthamensis ($1,900), and Linnaeus's Hortus Cliffortianus ($1,100).

Or one could have eschewed birds and botany for Blake and purchased Copy A of the Book of Thel for $21,000 at the Parke-Bernet sale of October 19. Another sale of interest to Blake devotees was that held at Phillips on October 26, when a collection of books relating to Blake was sold.

In addition to items mentioned elsewhere in this brief review of the season, the collector of autograph and manuscript material found much to absorb his attention and his funds, from manuscripts of 19th-century music sold at various houses and early American items sold at Freeman to a unique set of Le Sourire, with the first six of the nine issues written in Gauguin's hand for Georges-Daniel de Monfried, sold at Sotheby on July 3 for £9,000. As usual, Charles Hamilton Galleries accounted for the majority of "A & M's" sold during the season. The Jules Sindic collection of Presidential signatures brought $7,750; 4 A Ds and an ALs of William Hooper, Signer of the Declaration of Independence from North Carolina, sold for prices ranging from $2,000 to $3,600; letters from Hemingway to Charles Poore brought between $275 and $1,900; and a collection of letters of Susan B. Anthony and her feminist associates brought $3,300. Other important autographs included a letter of John Adams to his son Thomas about the classical antecedents of modern philosophy ($1,200) and thousands of dollars worth of letters from William Carlos Williams to Fred Miller.

The season's "name" sales included, in addition to Phillips, those of such collectors as Suzannet, Esmerian, Penrose, Holmes (Buxton Forman), Hutton, and King. Summaries of some of these collections follow.

ESMERIAN. The Palais Galliera, Paris, saw the beginning of a most exciting sale of manuscripts and fine bindings. On June 6 illuminated manuscripts and books of the 15th and 16th centuries, Part I of Raphael Esmerian's library, were offered at auction. The $5,117,400 realized by these 126 lots attests to their quality and importance.

Not surprisingly, some astonishingly lovely bindings came from the libraries of Jean Grolier (Lucan's De Bello Civili, Venice, 1515); Thomas Mahieu (Aretino's Ragionamento, Novara, 1538, and Sansovino's Lettere, 1543); Marcus Fugger, the Augsburg financier (Colonna's Hypnerotomachie, Paris, 1546, the 1st edition of the French translation, and Lucian's Dialogi et alia multa opera, Venice, 1522); Jean Bude, whose books helped shape the mind and ideas of the young Guillaume

THE AUCTION SEASON

(Caesar's Opera, Venice, 1478); Jacques-Auguste de Thou (Dio Cassius' Aelius Spartianus, Paris, 1544, and Estienne's Ciceronianum Lexicon, Geneva, 1557); and Diane de Poitiers (16th-century manuscript on vellum, "Les Vies de Scipion, Hannibal, Pompee, Ciceron")—to single out but a few.

Royal armorial bindings were often dedication copies printed on vellum. There were examples from the collections of Henri II of France (Livre des statuts & ordonances de l'Ordre Saint Michel, c.1550, and Origen's De recta in deum fide dialogus, Paris, 1556); Henri III of France (16th-century manuscript on vellum, "Livres des Armoiries de tous les Cardinaux . . . [de l'Ordre de] Saint Esprit"); Henri IV of France (Chappuys's Histoire du Royaume de Navarre, Paris, 1596); and James VI of Scotland, who became James I of England (Psalmi Davidis . . . a I. Servino decantati, Lyons, 1579).

Some of the great binders of the time were magnificently represented: Clovis and Nicolas Eve, the Deromes, Padeloup, Roger Payne, Claude de Picques, and Etienne Roffet. The subject heading Bindings will lead the interested reader to examples of their work.

Three items will suffice to indicate the excitement of this sale. The 15th-century illuminated manuscript of Francois Cardinal Ximenes's Vida de Jesuchristo reveals the original, and still unpublished, text in Catalan. The provenance of the lovely Apollo plaque bindings, long attributed to Canevarius and then to Pier Luigi Farnese, was traced at last through this copy of Robert Estienne's 3-volume Dictionarium, seu Latinae linguae Thesaurus, Paris, 1543, to Jean-Baptiste Grimaldi, Prince of Monaco. The work was on the condemned Index, but in 1633 the Inquisitor gave specific permission to consult certain parts of the work to the owner and his sons, and the permission notices in the volumes provided the key to the mystery of the Apollo cameos. The item commanding the highest price in the sale, F580,000, was Colonna's Hypnerotomachia Polifili in the 1499 Aldine Edition. This was a complete, fine copy in a rare "powdered binding," handsomely tooled to a design that anticipated the later elaborate fanfare bindings.

PENROSE. On November 9, Sotheby offered another selection from the celebrated library of Boies Penrose. The sale realized £132,033. Included were the second portion of the Penrose collection of books on travel, exploration, navigation, and trade; 14 remarkable manuscripts of geographical interest; and a selection of fine books from the 15th through the 17th centuries. A highly important 15th-century manuscript copy of Chaucer's Treatise on the Astrolabe highlighted the sale at £8,500, while a portolan chart of Western Europe and part of Africa, drawn and signed by Grazioso Benincasa at Venice in 1468, sold for £5,000. Also offered was the only known manuscript copy of Raleigh's map of Guiana, made between 1596 and 1599 and brilliantly colored, which brought £4,000. A copy of the 1499 Aldine Edition of Colonna's Hypnerotomachia Polifili sold for £3,000. The highest price paid for a book was £3,600 for Lukas Waghenaer's The Mirrour, c.1588, which contains some of the earliest specimens of copper-engraved maps produced in England.

SUZANNET. On November 22 Sotheby offered for sale a collection of autograph manuscripts, letters, and books by Charles Dickens from the collection of the late

THE AUCTION SEASON

Comte Alain de Suzannet. The Suzannet collection, developed over a thirty-year period, was generally regarded as one of the two most notable collections of Dickens held by private owners. Michael Slater, honorary editor of the Dickensian, notes that "such a concentration of splendid Dickensiana is unlikely to be seen on the market again."

A unique item in the sale was a reading copy of Mrs. Gamp, which went to El Dieff for £3,600. Condensed by Dickens for use in his readings, this small book was the copy used by Dickens himself at his last readings in Boston; it contains autograph corrections, additions, and underlinings on 17 of its 18 pages. It is inscribed by Dickens to H. M. Ticknor of Ticknor & Fields, Dickens's American publishers.

Among the other outstanding lots were three copies of the Pickwick Papers in the original 19/20 parts, two copies of which realized £1,700 each; the third, £1,100. All three have wrappers dated 1836, and two contain most of the advertisements. Other works in the original parts featured in the sale were rare editions of Sketches by Boz, which sold for £920, and A Tale of Two Cities, which brought £800. Also notable were many presentation copies (inscribed to such friends as William Charles Macready, W. H. Prescott, and Thomas Beard) and several early German and French translations of Dickens's works.

And, in addition to hundreds of fine Dickens letters, the only known leaves of original manuscript of any of Dickens's major novels still known to be in private hands were sold—the first 22 pages of Chapter XV of Nicholas Nickleby for £12,000, and the first 12 pages of Chapter XXXVII of Pickwick Papers for £9,000. A complete set of 42 drawings by Phiz for Little Dorrit fetched £4,400 and 5 drawings for Martin Chuzzlewit bound with copies of the published plates, £2,200.

Another remarkable Dickens item deserves mention here even though it did not come from the Suzannet collection. On March 28 Sotheby sold the only known letter written by Dickens to Maria Beadnell during the period of their courtship. This hitherto unrecorded 1831 letter, brought to sale by Dr. Renato Saggiori, went to Dickens House for £1,200.

KING. The Willis King III library, also sold by Sotheby, was the wide-ranging collection of a man of many interests. Categories spanned the romantic poets and incunabula, Boccaccio to the products of the great private presses. Travels were well represented, and bibliography accounted for an entire sale at Hodgson's rooms.

The more expensive works were largely incunabula: the Rhodiorum Historia of Caoursin, Ulm, 1496, brought £1,700; the 3d Edition of Pliny's Historia Naturalis, printed by Jenson at Venice in 1472, realized £2,400; the 2d Edition of Plutarch's Lives, Strassburg, c.1472, sold for £1,600. English literature also fetched high prices: a Shakespeare 4th Folio went for £1,200; a set of 1st Editions of Defoe's Robinson Crusoe and the Farther Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, 1719, brought £1,500. The 1st Edition in English of the Decameron, 1620, realized £2,200; and the 1st Edition of Adam Smith's Wealth of Nations, 1776, fetched £1,100.

SHAW. Would that the name of the consignor of the distinguished collection of letters, manuscripts, and first editions of George Bernard Shaw sold at Parke-Bernet on May 9 had been made public. The sale opened with a series of 19 A Ls s, 1883-85, to Alice Lockett and a love poem to her, 1882, all of which brought $4,250. The collection ranged from Fabian Society and other political material through rehearsal copies of plays and publishing agreements to a 1st Edition of The Adventures of the Black Girl in her Search for God, inscribed to William Maxwell (Shaw's printer) and with 22 proofs of the illustrations, signed by John Farleigh ($800).

PHILLIPPS. Medieval Manuscripts, New Series, Part VI, sold at Sotheby on November 30, featured such works as the Vitae Patrum, written c.1000, from the Abbey of Nonantola in the diocese of Modena (£14,000 to Olschki) and Sir Walter Raleigh's autograph commonplace book containing notes for the History of the World (£25,000 to Desk). The latter, which also sold in the June 1935 Phillipps sale and which was described only as "Commonplace Book, with drawings," in the Phillipps catalogue, was discovered to be Raleigh's by Dr. Walter Oakeshott in 1952.

New Series, Eighth Part, sold on July 4, consisted mainly of Greek and Italian manuscripts and English charters. Also included were a number of forgeries by Constantine Simonides and an autograph draft of a letter by Phillipps angrily attempting to defend himself against the charge of having been taken by Simonides.

Because many people have become confused by the numbering of the two Phillipps series, a brief explanation in these pages was deemed useful, and A. R. A. Hobson very kindly provided one: "In 1965 the Trustees of the Robinson Trust, who were by then the owners of the substantial residue, commissioned Sotheby's to sell all the remaining manuscripts at auction. Since the post-war sales had not been numbered consecutively with the pre-war ones, I thought it best to start numbering from one again in two 'New Series.' One is called 'New Series Medieval.' Catalogues of this series are large quarto, and a sale has been held annually since 1965 with an interval in 1970. The other series, called simply 'New Series,' consists of mostly post-medieval manuscripts, and some printed books. Catalogues are in a smaller quarto format. Lot numbers in each series run consecutively. . . ."

HOLMES. The items brought to sale at Sotheby by Madeleine Buxton Holmes were interesting both in terms of content and in terms of her grandfather, Harry Buxton Forman, and his relationship with T. J. Wise. In fact, the catalogue of the sale on April 10 contains significant additions to Wise scholarship and certainly is a catalogue to keep for that reason. On June 27 the manuscripts sold were related to H. Buxton Forman's and Maurice Buxton Forman's work on Keats. The four premier items were the autograph manuscript of Keats's "To Hope" (£5,800); an autograph letter from Keats to his brothers written from Southampton before he embarked for the Isle of Wight to work on Endymion (£11,000); Fanny Brawne's autograph transcript of Severn's letter to her mother describing Keats's last illness (£2,600); and the only known surviving "Amena Bellefila" letter from C. J. Wells to Tom Keats (£1,200). Many of the other items were from the Benjamin Robert Haydon papers. On July 18, some of Walt Whitman's "Lost Letters" (including some that were unknown to Miller) to H. Buxton Forman and others sold for substantial prices to El Dieff. And an autograph draft of Whitman's "The Ox Tamer" fetched £1,000 (also to El Dieff). Finally, on July 25, most of the papers left to H. Buxton Forman by Richard Hengist Horne were sold, a collection that provides new material on every aspect of Horne's life.
